ONLINE EXAMINATION TIME: 45 Minutes

YEAR THREE SCIENCE

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Circle the correct answer.

1. _____ is a way of sorting animals.

   a. Classification b. Insects c. Reproduction

2. How many groups can animals be classified into?

   a. 4 b. 5 c. 6

3. _____ form 85% of all known animals in the world.

   a. Insects b. Mammals c. Birds

4. A scorpion is an example of an _____

   a. Amphibian b. Reptile c. Insect

5. _____ are born out of hard-shelled eggs.

   a. Mammals b. Birds c. Insects

6. A human being is an example of a _____

   a. Reptile b. Mammal c. Bird

7. _____ have a scally skin.

   a. Reptiles b. Mammals c. Amphibians

8. The are _____ life processes.

   a. 6 b. 7 c. 8

9. _____ is the ability of an organism to move its entire body or parts of its body.

a. Movement b. Growth c. Excretion

10. _____ is the ability of a living thing to take in food.

a. Reproduction b. Respiration c. Nutrition

11. There is one Moon and many _____ in the sky at night.

a. Suns b. Stars c. Holes

12. The Sun is also a _____

a. Planet b. Star c. Solar system

13. A _____ is formed by combining two or more different substances

a. Mixture b. Chemical c. Water

14. _____ is referred to as a universal solvent.

a. Salt b. Water c. Milk

15. A chicken is an example of a _____

a. Duck b. Insect c. Bird

Answer the following questions.

1. Give two features of mammals.

_____

_____

2. What is a mixture?

_____

_____

3. Mention any three (3) examples of a liquid-liquid mixture.

_____

_____

_____

4. With the aid of a diagram, explain how an insect (butterfly) reproduces.